Course Information

The International Summer School on “AI and Criminal Justice”, organized by Luiss School of Law in cooperation with Goethe University Frankfurt am Main is an advanced course which gives a comprehensive and up-to-date overview of the interrelations between AI and criminal justice.

The course is one-of-a-kind, as it will bring together internationally recognized academics and practitioners who will co-teach during the interdisciplinary modules of the course.

The course will be held in person at Luiss University.

Course objectives: The International Summer School on “AI and Criminal Justice” aims at providing participants with a comprehensive knowledge, as well as conceptual and normative tools to understand and manage opportunities and threats brought by the latest AI developments in the different areas of criminal justice.

To this purpose, the course will primarily give a solid background on how algorithms work, essential in order to gain a full expertise to combine the related advantages and disadvantages. Afterwards, lessons will be focused on AI applications in the criminal justice area, exploring the use of AI as a supportive tool in the public and private sectors and training participants’ skills to frame and solve the criminal liability issues related to these new agents coming on to stage.

Target: The International Summer School on “AI and Criminal Justice” is an advanced course open to graduates, PhD students, post-doctoral researchers as well as to practitioners from public and private sectors who intend to acquire an interdisciplinary and in-depth knowledge in the cutting-edge area of AI and criminal justice in its most recent developments at the international level.

Course grading: 80% final exam and 20% class participation. The final exam consists in writing a short paper on a specific topic addressed during the course and approved by the coordinator/tutor.

About Luiss University

The Summer School will take place at Viale Romania Campus, Luiss University, in the heart of Rome. Luiss – Libera Università Internazionale degli Studi Sociali Guido Carli – is an independent university. It was created out of a pre-existing Roman institution, Pro Deo, between 1974 and 1978.

Luiss offers an innovative educational approach at its four Departments: Economics and Finance, Business and Management, Law, and Political Science. Its goal is not simply to convey knowledge but to instill flexibility in young people, giving them a sense of mastery over their future.

Furthermore, Luiss has four Schools for graduate and professional studies: the Luiss Business School, the School of Government, the School of Law, and the School of European Political Economy.

About Rome

Rome is the capital of Italy, a large cosmopolitan city with an artistic, architectural and cultural history that has been influencing the whole world for almost 3000 years. The ancient ruins, such as the Forum and the Colosseum, testify the glorious past of the ancient Roman Empire.

In the Vatican City, ecclesiastical state seat of the Roman Catholic Church, it is possible to admire St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican Museums' masterpieces, such as the Sistine Chapel frescoed by Michelangelo.
