- Candidates that will achieve a minimum score of 45 points during the screening and evaluation phase will be called to an interview to complete their admission process.

- Candidates selected for an interview will be informed through the email indicated in their application and must confirm their presence at the interview by e-mail within 2 working days from the communication. Should a candidate not confirming or attending the interview for any reason, he/she will be excluded from the selection process.

- The Selection Committee will have up to 50 points to assign for the interview, evaluating candidates' motivation to apply, their skills and maturity based on their age, their specific professional aptitude for the field considered, as well as their background of studies and professional experiences and any other matter considered relevant.

ART. 7 – RESULTS AND FORMAL ACCEPTANCE

- The Selection Committee shall verify the formal regularity of the documents and announce the winner of the scholarship before August, the 4th, 2019. The Selection Committee bears the full responsibility of the selection procedure and its result are to be considered final.

- Winners will be informed using the email contact indicated in the application. A reserve list of candidates will also be prepared in case of non-acceptance or failure to accept.

- Within five days from the date of this communication, the winner must communicate to the Luiss School of Law its formal acceptance and send any other requested documents. Failing to do so, the Selection Committee will move to the first candidate of the reserve list.

ART.7 – SCHOLARSHIP RULES

- Students awarded the scholarships will be exempted from the payment of the tuition fee. Still, the following conditions apply:

- correct enrollment in the Master;
- regular attendance (at least 80% of the total hours of classes), guaranteeing punctual arrival and full attendance of classes to be verified on an ongoing basis;
- positive results of all tests and exams planned during the course.

- The scholarships will be withdrawn should its holder does not satisfy even just one of the conditions indicated in this article or in this call. In this case, the scholarship holder is mandated to full payment of the tuition fee if he/she wants to receive the Master's degree.

- In case of failure to respect the abovementioned condition, the candidate will be excluded from any other future academic activity organized by Luiss Guido Carli.

ART.8 – CHECKS

- The Luiss School of Law reserves the right to carry out checks on the applications. In the case of any discrepancy between what has been declared and what has been verified, the scholarship will be withdrawn and any further action envisaged by the law initiated.

ART.9 – PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- Luiss (Libera Università Internazionale degli Studi Sociali Guido Carli), as Controller, collects and processes data subjects' information in full compliance with the general principles and rules laid down by the law governing the protection of personal data (Legislative Decree No. 196/03 and Regulation (EU) No. 2016/679). The processing is required to correctly manage the procedures inherent in the call for applications in relation to the master in Fashion Law and associated scholarships as well as associated and ensuing obligations: the characteristics of the processing are communicated through a privacy notice given to the data subjects, who are also requested to consent to the processing of their data should it prove necessary in relation to the aims pursued by the Controller. Data subjects may at all times exercise their statutory rights (concerning, for example, access to data, rectification of data, erasure of data, restrictions on processing of data and portability of data by contacting the Controller Luiss Guido Carli at Viale Pola 12, 00198 Rome, Italy, e-mail privacy@luiss.it).

Art. 10 GOVERNING LAWS

- The Master and the process of assignment of the scholarship is governed by the laws of the Republic of Italy, EU law and regulations, and Luiss University regulations, including this call.
